Rio 2020 canceled due to Covid and economic strain that follows

The event was scheduled to take place this autumn 2022. However, the pandemic and the economic strain that follows make it impossible to hold the event in 2022. Therefore, the Organising Committee and the IMGA have made the difficult decision to cancel the event.

The IMGA still believes Rio would be an ideal host to organise the Games. Therefore, we are working with the Organising Committee to see if we can find a solution for 2028 to bring the Masters community together in this vibrant city destination.

Parret hails "community spirit" at IMGA World Masters Games

During the 2019 Torino European Masters games we interviewed Australian Jim Parret. Parret was diagnosed with prostate cancer in 2010, and was rushed to hospital on three occasions in 2012 when his heart stopped.

He has lauded the potential for the IMGA World Masters Games to bring people together and offer athletes the chance to meet new people from around the world.
